Adelaide- Sunday 29th June 2008, 7.30pm, Wednesday 5-00pm, Thursday 10-30am

Chandana TV as part of its commitment to promote activities, features, talents and achievements of the Indo-Australian Community has launched this unique segment to showcase the achievements of people who have taken special interest and excelled in the fields of arts, culture and sports well outside their normal profession. In this "Luminaries of Sydney" special series, Chandana TV is proud to present "Anita Barar" a writer, poet, theatre play writer /performer, journalist broadcaster and Film maker.

In this special 'Meet the Artist' we meet with Anita Barar and discuss her latest documentary film "crossing the line" which was premiered in Sydney on 5th August 2007 in the presence of well known and popular Australian crooner 'Kamahl'. The film focuses on the seniors of India and Pakistan who crossed the border in 1947 in the wake of partition of India.

Apart from acclaimed screening of this film in India in August 2007, this film was official inclusion at Asian Festival of First Film at Singapore in Nov/ Dec 2007 and now has been invited for South Asian Film festival at New Jearsey, USA.

This interview will throw light on the subject of the film, challenges faced while working on it and of course will give you chance to meet and discover / know more about Anita Barar.
